Pilina Ulana (HPS Notes/ Commentary)	The garage! It was the place to meet and hang out with Auntie Kahili in Paukūkalo Hawaiian Homes for our numerous oral history sessions. She was nearly 90 when we first began talking story through HPS and was sharp, engaging, and fun! Our videographer was often challenged when trying to frame her on camera, because she liked to lean over in her chair with her elbows on her knees, so you have to get low to be able to see her beautiful face in the viewfinder! Auntie Kahili “was” Maui through and through, from her special Maui sayings, to her way of speaking, to the twinkle in her eye when recalling experiences of her life and family, experiences that took place a stone’s throw from where we were sitting and talking almost 90 years later. Auntie Kahili was a master lauhala weaver and quilter and regularly shared her works of art during our talk-stories as well. What we remember the most about Auntie Kahili, though, is her love for her family and for hula, and the deep pride that filled her being.
